USPA NEWS - The filmmathon is sort of an athletic challenge. A race against time, as the participants only have one day, 24-hour hours, to make their film.

Our goal is to bring awareness to the changes we all have to do on a daily basis in our consuming habits. The competition aims to do that with the power of filmmaking. A crew can have only one or more members. Participants have to create a maximum one minute long short film to raise awareness on what we can do to save our environment, like being a bit more energy efficient or taking a bit more care in our daily life. The online competition is open to anyone from anywhere.

There is no entry fee, no age limit. There are no technical restrictions. The films can be made with a digital camera, mobile phone or any other applicable camera. During post-production any appropriate programs can be used. There is no preferred genre for the films. It could be a live action short film, video clip or animation.

All the participants get the same time for making the film during the 24-hour marathon, considering the differences in the time-zone. Registrations can be made up until the start of the competition at the official site of the program.

SHOOTING

The timing of the shooting: Starts at 10 AM local time, 17th of April, 2021 (Saturday), finishes at 10 AM local time, 18th of April, 2021 (Sunday)

During this time span of 24 hours, the participants have to shoot and edit a creative, smart short film with a maximum length of 60 seconds. The films can be made with a digital video camera, mobile phone, tablet or digital camera.

Shooting must be done during the official time span of the competition. Pre-shooting is not allowed.

The music of the uploaded film must be properly licensed and the images must be original, legitimate recordings made by the crew after 10 AM local time, 17th of April, 2021. COMPULSORY ELEMENT

The Organizers will announce three compulsory elements. Out of these three elements the Participants have to choose one they believe fits their film the best. This one element must be used and incorporated into the uploaded film. These compulsory elements will be announced publicly via the website of the competition at 10 AM local time, 17th of April (Saturday). The compulsory element could be a colour, an object, etc. that the participants get to know at the moment of the start of the program.
